SCANDI 2023 is showing the face and reveals the date

08. 12. 2022

8/12/2022, Prague, Bratislava - This January will get the upper hand the most up-to-date Nordic cinematography. The ninth year of the popular film festival SCANDI will present from 18. 1. to 1. 25. 2023 in Czechia and 24. do 31. 1. 2023 in Slovakia a careful selection of the most outstanding contemporary Scandinavian films from all five countries: Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark and Iceland. The show will take place in cinemas throughout Slovakia and the Czech Republic. Audience may look forward to a variety of accompanying programs: from debates with creators and other interesting guests, through lectures to the scandinavian atmosphere of the Edison Filmhub Café in Prague.

The complete line-up will be presented just before Christmas, but SCANDI shows its face already today. The main visual SCANDI shares with nobody else than the lead actress Kristine Kujath Thorp (Ninjababy, 2021) of the picture I Feel Sick of Myself, which is behind the producers of the award-winning The Worst Person in the World.
